

DIALOGUE THREE

1 How do we tackle a xtummer? (7)

Don't. Let him xtum. Xtumming is not a physical inconvenience, but a spiritual one. Validate or invalidate on a purely spiritual basis. Don't put yourself in a position to be inconvenienced on a spiritual basis. Don't put yourself in a position to be inconvenienced on a spiritual level. i.e Don't expect spiritual contribution from a xtummer.

2 What about failure to validate on a spiritual level?

The same. Ignore it. It is irrelevant unless you choose to make it matter. If you choose this, you are including the unconscious and its compulsive sense of responsibility.

If you want validation, look for a level on which you know you will receive it. Expect from people what they give, no more, no less.

The introduction of a common level of requirement in the areas of validation and stimulation and contribution, is doomed to failure.

It stems from the responsibilities of unconsciousness.

3 How's that?

It presupposes fairness and equal distribution in these areas.

Where response is given on a spiritual level, expect no more; regard it as a bonus.

Human beings, incidentally, find it almost impossible to respond on a physical level to what they receive on a spiritual level.

The level of response may well manifest on an inversion.

4 Is the response conscious or primarily unconscious?

Both. But remember here that the conflict is not between the two sides of unconscious, both of which reject any truth outside the bounds of human responsibility, but between the spark of true conscious awareness, of which little remains submerged and the entire structure of the unconscious.

The spark inevitably validates; the unconscious inevitably invalidates: and on a conscious level, two opposing armies, one of death dressed in black and another of death dressed in synthetic white, join forces against a minute stronghold of life.

5 What do we do with those who won't even validate or contribute on a physical level?

They will. Demand nothing of them on a spiritual level and they will contribute and validate on a physical level.

6 Why do some validate on a spiritual level and others do not?

They very seldom do. When they do, it is either because the structure of the unconscious feels itself so secure that it can afford to concede a victory to the spark of life, or because they can fit the spiritual experience or information without difficulty into one side or other of the unconscious structure.

In fact what generally happens and has happened all through the ages, is that any real revelation of the truth, where the spark of life has defeated the armies of death, the armies have subsequently rallied, stolen the truth and distorted it to fit the

the highly adaptable and accommodating structure of the unconscious, thus ensuring that should the truth ever appear again, the structure will be suited to absorbing it in its own terms. Rationalisation is a part of this process.

The purpose of the unconscious is to fill the consciousness in order to maintain the exclusion of GOD, and it requires the involvement of the consciousness in order to perform the function. If the consciousness detaches knowingly from the unconscious, the armies will starve of disuse and purposelessness.

The essence of all existence is purpose. Without purpose nothing can live.

NOTES

(7) To xtumm (pronounced 'shtoom'; oo as in 'good') is to kill either physically, spiritually or mentally, depending on the context.

The extent of the 'death' can vary. For example: to xtumm someone can mean simply mean to silence him, to knock him senseless or to destroy him completely. Also atmospheres can be xtummed, contact betweened people can be xtummed, etc. In the present context a 'xtummer' refers to one who kills contacts and atmospheres on a spiritual level, with heavy deadening projections and attitudes.
