

DIALOGUE FIVE

1 How can we maintain the Unity of Xtul?

By solidification of the purpose.

2 What does that mean?

It means putting into effect the information I have given you.

Purpose, by the way, is not something that you hope or intend to achieve in the future, if and when, but something you are doing here and now. At present you have no purpose because what you are doing is trying to strike a compromise between maintaining the physical and aspiring to the spiritual. Aspiration is not purpose. (10)

Solidify your purpose by action along the lines of separation of the physical and spiritual.

Maintain the physical with responsibility. Responsibility belongs to the physical, so give it to the physical. Allow GOD to look after the spiritual. Impose no must, ought or should on that level. The spiritual belongs to GOD; give it to GOD.

By these means you maintain the Unity of Xtul.

3 What don't we know about physical responsibility?

Nothing. You have demanded it, and been given it together with all the knowledge that goes with it. The end product of it is peace, love, relaxation, harmony, stimulation, satisfaction, and well-being on a physical, mental and emotional level. Achieve that as a group, and you are in a state of fulfillment of physical responsibility.

Then and only then will you rise above it and cease to care on a physical level. When this happens you have achieved the threshold of spirituality. At present you are reaching for the stars with your feet firmly buried in the earth.

Be aware of the stars, accept and validate any information given you from the stars. But reach? No. Aspire? No. That in your present state is an anachronism. (11)

4 Why an anachronism?

Because the reach is compulsive, and does not stem from pure conscious.

5 Can you clarify the difference between love as it is in the context of the new code and our parody of it?

Love is the unremitting flow of power and information from one pole to another, and the return of validation. It demands nothing

It is not something that one person feels for another, or one person gives to another. It is the ACTION of a two way flow of energy, not simply a one way intention or hope of contact.

Love is inherent in something that is happening here and now, not in something that might happen in the future.

A further major difference between love and the human parody of love lies in the concept of caring. The parody is based on compulsive care, feelings of intensified responsibility and strong demands on self. Love itself requires no caring, which is the product of unconscious conflict only, but consists of the realisation of pure intention from two separate existences to allow a harmonious mutual flow of cosmic energy in various complimentary forms.

6 What do you mean by complimentary forms?

For example; Validation is complimentary to power and information. That is how they are interchangeable.

7 Are there other forms?

Hundreds, but don't concern yourself with them at present. The concepts are hard to interpret as they are not human concepts. Besides, information about them is at present unnecessary.

8 What is the initial energy given by GOD, which you referred to earlier?

A form of cosmic energy. A part of GOD that He separates from Himself, and then inverts in order to maintain its separateness.

In absolute terms the energy is not strictly GIVEN, it simply IS the creation and the creation IS the energy.

The creation is activated in terms of its purpose by the fact of its separation and inversion. It is active energy and with the quality of consciousness. On the other hand it is consciousness with the quality of active energy.

This interchangeability leads to the confusion of whether a being is his consciousness or his unconsciousness. In his original created state he contains pure consciousness and cosmic energy. In his fallen state his consciousness is primarily filled with lies, distortions, inversions and ignorance and his cosmic energy is used to motivate the conflict of the unconscious.

This is why we speak of the unconscious being the seat of power. The answer is that the being as he basically is, is the tiny spark of awareness remaining in his consciousness. However he has so completely identified himself with and given himself over to the unconscious conflict he has created, that he IS, to all intents and purpose (literally), his unconsciousness.

NOTES

(10) Out of Time (See Cycle of Ignorance).

(11) This still applies!