

The Mystic Rites of the Black Virgin

Introduction

A Black Virgin is a statue or painting of the Virgin Mary in which she is depicted with dark or black skin.

Their dark skin the colour of fertile earth.

They are often found in trees or by a spring: another association with Mother Earth.

The Black Virgins are worshipped by esoteric cults, and overlap with the witch belief in the Earth Mother.

The power of the Black Virgin is perhaps the most potent form of energy that an individual can manifest in their personal lives.

I will give to you a secret that is known only to adepts and members of the secret societies that exist as part of the Esoteric Sciences.

The secret I am going to share with you are the mystic rites of the Black Virgin herself.

Scores of other people, just like you, have reaped the benefits of these mystic rites, and started to live a new and exciting life.

Now you can join them!

Now, you too, can learn to expect miracles of health, wealth and happiness.

With the miraculous power of the Black Virgin working for you, nothing will be beyond your reach.

I will show you how to. . .

Bring money to meet your needs.

Have a special wish granted.

Receive protection from evil.

Win the love of a man or a woman.

Make a Voodoo Love Cake.

Control any situation.

Increase your income.

Attract good health.

This booklet will show you how you can bring these blessings into your life with the Mystic Rites of the Black Virgin.

You will have the power to turn your life around.

No longer will you consider yourself unlucky, unwanted, or unloved.

Mystic Rite One:

At midnight during the phase of a new moon you are to prepare on a simple altar an image or a figurine of the Black

Virgin, a candle and candle holder.

For this ritual it is essential you know exactly the amount you wish to acquire.

Light the candle.

Bring yourself to a sexual climax and, with due reverence, anoint the candle with the discharged seed or juices carefully.

Whilst doing this say the following:

Black Virgin, Holy Mother of the fertile soil,

I have nothing which is not thine.

I give you the fruits of my loins.

And in return I ask for a blessing.

Black Virgin, send me money to meet my needs.

Leave the candle burning.

Clean yourself up and resume your normal activity.

When the money arrives make a 10% donation to any organisation dedicated to preserving and protecting the environment.

Mystic Rite Two:

For a general improvement in luck and good fortune.

On the 1st or 3rd night of a new moon take a candle shaped like seven knobs and place it beside an image of the Black Virgin.

Anoint the candle with a perfumed oil.

Light the candle, and say:

Black Virgin, give me my purpose.

I have nothing which is not thine.

I burn this candle in your honour.

In return I ask that a wish be granted.

Black Virgin, bless me with good fortune.

Allow the first knob of the candle to be consumed.

Extinguish candle.

Repeat this mystic rite for the next six nights until all seven knobs have been burned.

Mystic Rite Three:

If you wish to drive away evil forces try the following rite.

Place four red candles at the four corners of the room, one candle at each corner.

At midnight, light the candles and name each aloud in turn:

You Grand Bois.

You Carrafour.

You Cemetiere.

You Damballah.

In your all-powerful names which I have invoked with this offering, and in the name of the Black Virgin of the forest, I command evil demons and hexes to flee this dwelling, never to return.

Keep the windows opened during this ritual as an avenue of departure for the malevolent forces.

Mystic Rite Four:

To win the love of a man.

On the night of a full moon, take a wax doll in the form of a man and lay it upon an altar before an image of the Black Virgin.

Bring yourself to a sexual climax and anoint the image with the discharged juices.

Whilst doing this say the following:

Be you come and may you love me in the bedroom (person's name).

Black Virgin, call him as I call him and love him as I love him.

Black Virgin give me my purpose!

Clean yourself up and keep the wax doll in a secret place in your home.

If you are a man seeking the love of a woman, the details are the same except a doll in the image of a woman is used, and the pronoun "her" where appropriate.

Mystic Rite Five:

In this rite you are going to bake a Voodoo Love Cake to capture the hearts of those you desire.

During the phase of a full moon bake a cake as normal with any ingredients you prefer.

When the cake is being mixed in the bowl add a small quantity of your own seed or juices.

and as you do this recite the following:

In the Name of the Black Virgin of the forest,
I seek to take the love of whomsoever eats
this cake and make it my own.

All you now have to do is get them to sample your cake, one bite is enough.

Perform this spell every full moon if you wish to keep their love.

Mystic Rite Six:

To control any situation and to give you domination of business partners, customers and employees.

During the phase of a new moon place yourself before an image of the Black Virgin and say:

Black Virgin of the fertile soil, hear my plea!

Moment by moment, I become closer to you.

I am filled with the powerful vibrations which are yours to give.

Everyone who comes near me will feel your strength and obey my will.

The power to control any situation is now mine.

Black Virgin, give me my purpose!

Perform this spell every new moon and your power to control any situation will improve.

Mystic Rite Seven:

If you wish to get a certain job or obtain a promotion at work try the following rite.

Think about the job you want and imagine yourself in it.

Now is the time to place your request with the Black Mother of the earth.

Black Virgin, I have nothing which is not thine.

Rain down thy blessings upon me,

So that whatever is necessary to increase my income will happen.

Black Virgin, give me my purpose!

Sit for a few minutes and again imagine yourself in the position.

Rest assured the promotion or job will be yours.

Mystic Rite Eight:

To receive help in healing an illness.

On a night when the moon is bright and full, find a photo of yourself taken when you were vibrant and healthy.

There are no signs of illness.

You are happy and smiling.

Next, fill a glass with spring water and place it to the right of an image of the Black Virgin, and a white candle to the left.

Light the candle.

Sit down and relax.

Hold the photo in your hands in your lap.

Lift the photograph until it is illuminated by the light of the candle.

Look intently at the photo for a few moments.

Look up at the image of the Black Virgin and say:

Black Virgin, I have nothing which is not thine.

Let perfect health come to me.

Fill this liquid with your healing power.

Let the illness within be gone from me now.

Black Virgin, give me my purpose!

Put the photograph down in front of the Black Virgin.

Pick up the glass and drink the water.

Repeat this mystic rite as often as required.

You should only use this mystic rite with prescribed medication, not as a cure-all.

Mystic Rite Nine:

I will now show you how to make an Excitement Charm.

If your life has been dull, this is the magic that can change all that.

For this ritual it is essential you know exactly the type of stimulating condition you seek.

On a night during the phase of a full moon, collect items associated with the excitement you are wishing for.

For example. . .

Used movie tickets.

Bus, train, or airline tickets.

Party favours.

Old invitations.

Wrap the items in a piece of black cloth.

Sew the black cloth together with white thread.

Wet the packet with whiskey, and put it in a small red bag.

Place the red bag before an image of the Black Virgin.

Do not touch the bag again for six days or until life becomes exciting enough for you, whichever is sooner.

Be alert during the six days for every opportunity offered to you which will bring the excitement you seek.

This is a form of sympathetic magic.

Adjuration of the Black Virgin

Adore the Black Virgin, loving mother of all her children.

Receiving the adjuration of men and gods.

The dark guardian of the fertile soil.

She is the Earth Mother.

Her love makes the trees grow and rivers flow.

The dark, mysterious, elusive virgin of the forest.

She is the source of all growing things, and is life.
