Introduction

The art of fortune telling with playing cards has been around for centuries and there are various methods to choose from. Some people use all the cards of the deck and some use part of it while others buy special fortune telling cards known as Tarot Cards. The method illustrated in this book originates from the Middle East using regular playing cards. This method was taught to me by my great aunt of Persian / Turkish heritage.

In Middle Eastern fortune telling you use one deck of cards discarding all the twos, threes, fours, and fives, so you are left with a deck of 36 cards. In the readings when we refer to the deck of cards, we mean a deck consisting of the 36 cards.

Each card can have multiple meanings plus its location can also make a difference. Is it in the future or part of the past? Is it between or before auspicious cards, or inauspicious ones? What types of cards dominate the reading? After some practice, you should be able to get the hang of it and it will become like second nature. In fact, once you master our spreads, nothing should prevent you from coming up with your own spreads.

This book is divided into four main sections. You have a cheat sheet to help you glance at the meaning of the cards and to give some helpful hints.

Then you will be taught how to lay out cards and learn some spreads. Afterwards, one page is dedicated to the meaning of each card of the deck.

Finally, there is a sample spread with interpretation as a guide to help you learn the art of fortune telling.

This book is meant to be used for entertainment purposes. Even though it is fun trying to find out what lies ahead in our lives, whether it is actually possible or not is the million dollar question. Some people have special powers and some use the cards as an aide. I am not making any claims or giving any special power to the subject. You can consult the cards and use your intuitive power trying to predict upcoming events. Telling fortune can also be like solving a puzzle. At the end of the day, you are the master of your own destiny and responsible for your own decisions.

I hope you enjoy this e-book and have fun with your friends and family.

Cheat sheet and other hints

Aces: Signing of documents. Promises. Partnerships.

Kings: A male person in a high position. Professionals. An older person.

Queens: Females. Birth. New beginnings.

Jacks: Younger people. Protector.

Tens: Achievements. Success.

Nines: Movement. Building. In the process of making.

Eights: News. Events.

Sevens: Legal documents. Paperwork. Legalization. End of waiting.

Sixes: Path. Trips. Vacations. Going away.

Red Numbered Cards

Finding red numbered cards after any other cards gives them a more positive outlook. For example if a red numbered card falls by a sickness card, then it means recovery from that sickness.

Clubs

Clubs are usually about your shared life either with a partner or a spouse. It can represent your love life or business life.

Spades

Spades are generally inauspicious cards; however, if red numbered cards fall after them (on their right side) then you can change their meaning to a more positive one.

If you find a King of Spades, 9 of Spades, 8 of Spades and 6 of Spades (all four together but not necessarily in that order) on top of the consultant card then it means death. However it would not be proper practice to advise anyone regarding this matter as these readings are only for entertainment purposes. Meanwhile if you get 3 of the mentioned cards with a red numbered card, then it means recovery from a sickness or recovery from an accident.

If you find 4 Aces in the entire reading, it is an indication of a very good fortune.

Choosing a face card as the Consultant

Widowed or Divorced Female = Queen of Spades

Married Female = Queen of Clubs

Engaged Female = Queen of Diamonds

Single Female = Queen of Hearts

Divorced or Widowed Male = Jack of Spades

Married Male = Jack of Clubs

Engaged Male = Jack of Diamonds

Single Male = Jack of Hearts

Spreads

The Main Spread

The first thing to do is to choose the consultant card. For married females use the Queen of Clubs. For widowed or divorced females choose Queen of Spades. For single females use Queen of Hearts and for engaged ladies choose Queen of Diamonds.

For married men use Jack of Clubs. For single and men use Jack of Hearts. For engaged men use Jack of Diamonds and for divorced or widowed gentlemen use Jack of Spades.

Step 1

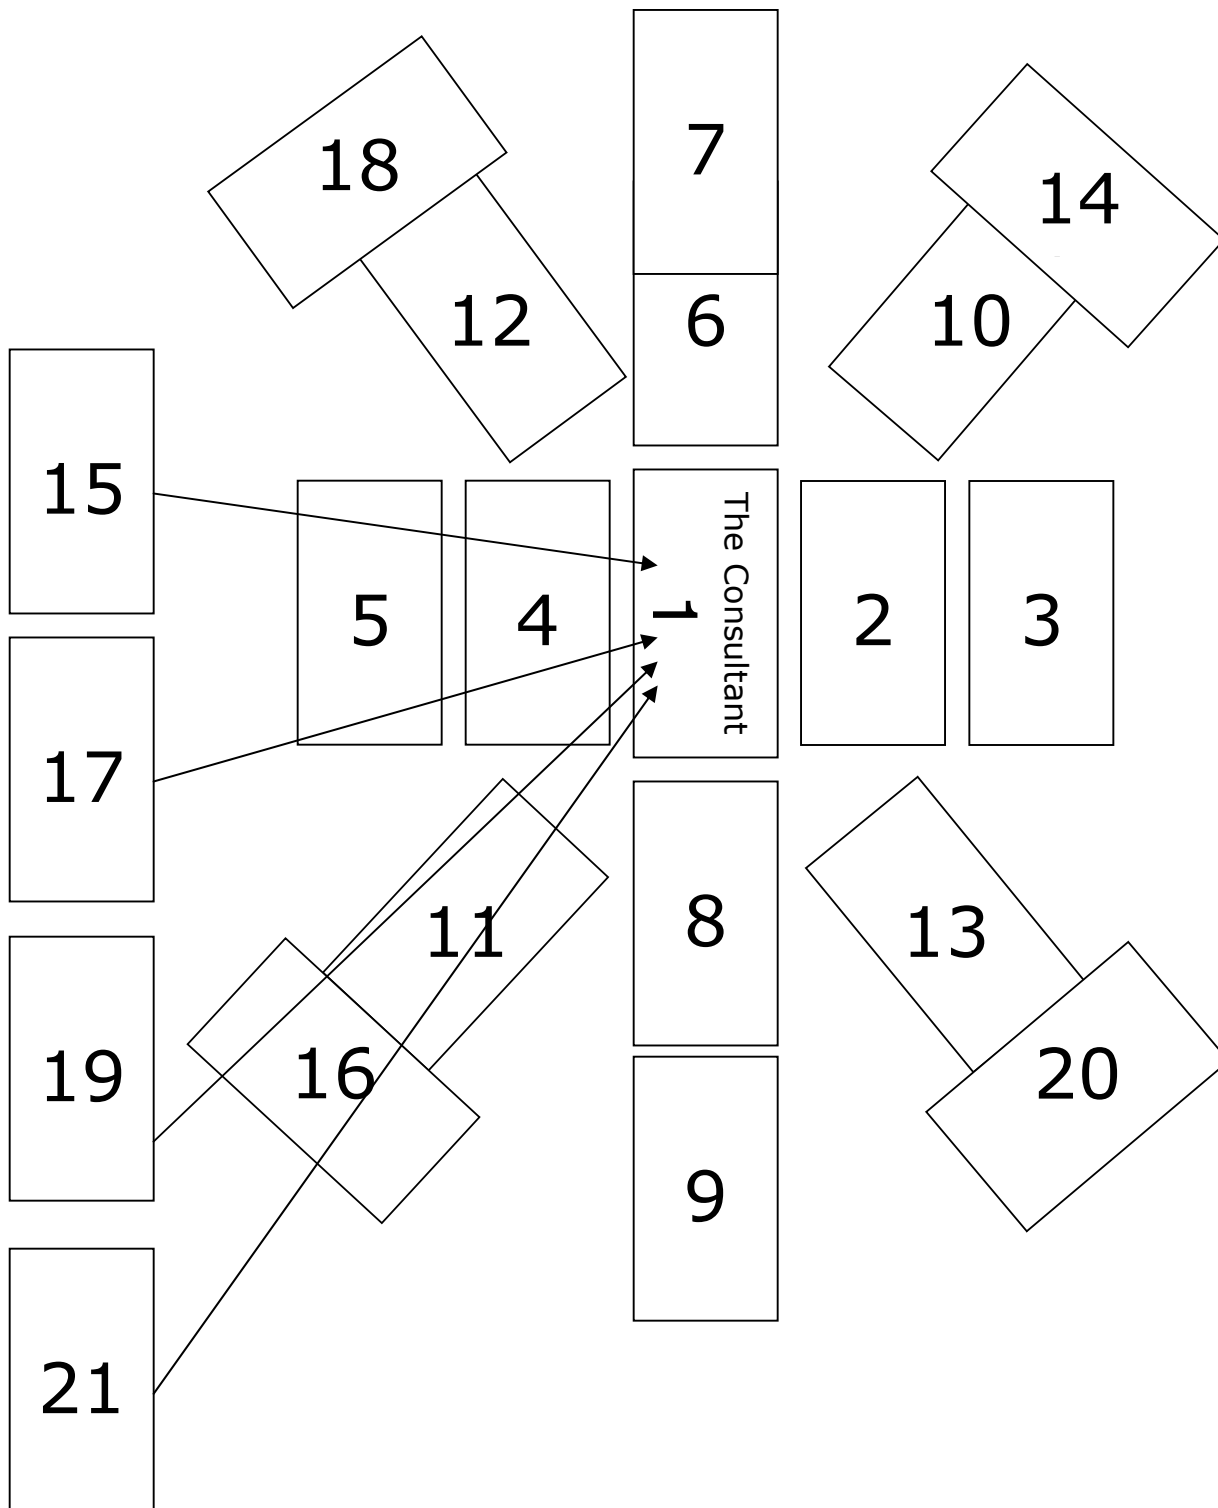

You start by putting the face card representing the consultant in the middle of the spread.

The consultant then takes the deck and shuffles them to their satisfaction and then cuts the deck with his/her left hand into two piles.

You will take the bottom part of the cut deck and place it on top of the rest of the deck.

From the top of the deck you will draw 20 cards and place them face up as indicated below.

Card numbers 15, 17, 19 and 21 are placed on top of the consultant card face down.

Cards 2 and 3 indicate present situation or event. Issues that are faced by the consultant at this point in time.

Cards 4 and 5 indicate the thoughts and desires of the consultant.

Cards 6 and 7 indicate possibility of what might happen in the near future.

Cards 8 and 9 represent the past or issues that are not of importance anymore.

You need to connect and read together the following cards: 10 and 14 with 11 and 16.

Then you will connect card numbers 12 and 18 with 13 and 20.

The last four cards left on the consultant card (numbers 15, 17, 19 and 21) are the conclusion of the spread. These cards relate to the consultant's most inner wishes. They can also represent the most important situation in the consultant's life at this moment.

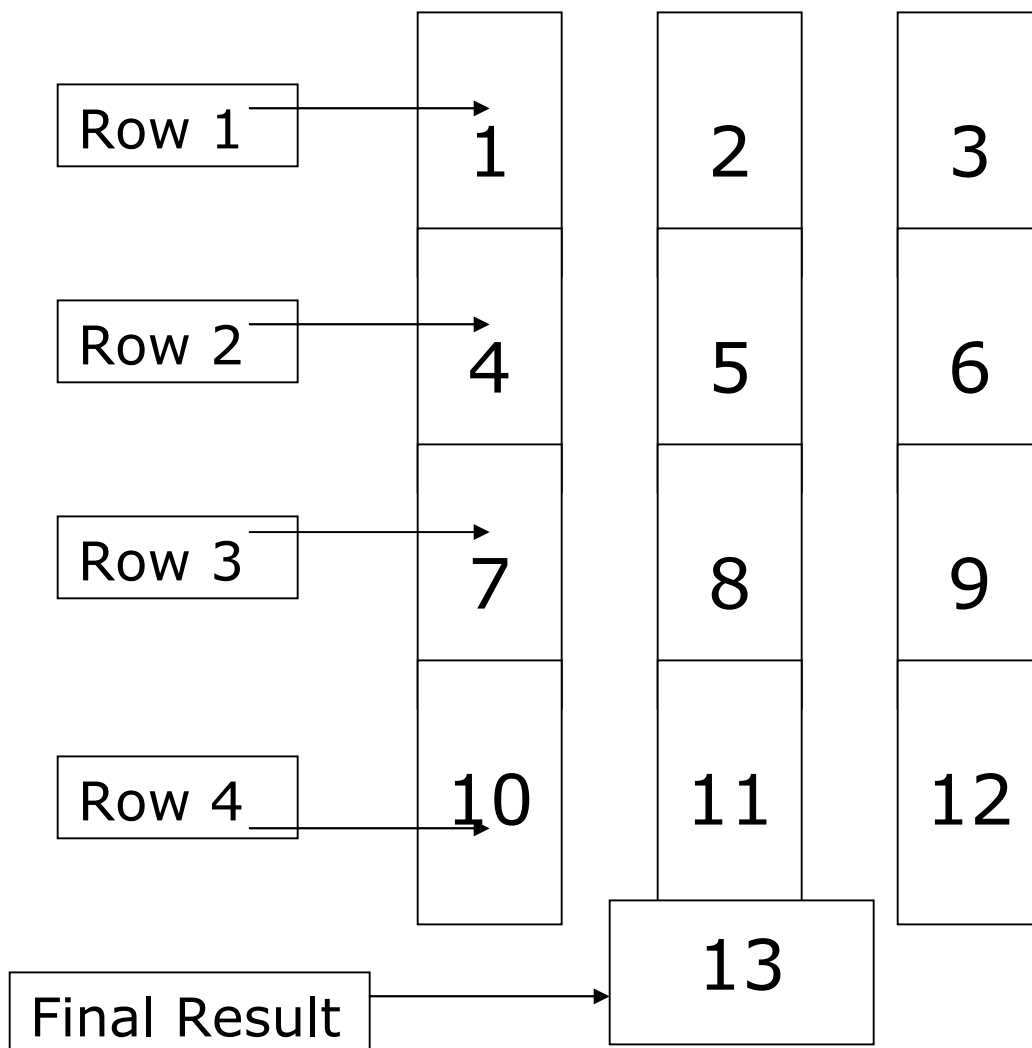

Step 2

After you finish reading all the cards from step 1, then you will remove two cards at a time in this order:

- 1- Remove cards of that have the same number or face value and are of the same color first. For example 7 of hearts with 7 of diamonds or Jack of Clubs with Jack of Spades are removed first. However, you will never remove the consultant card. Once all

- same number or face cards and same color cards are removed then,
- 2- Remove the same numbered or face cards regardless of color obviously.

Whatever cards are left you take them and count them. If you have less than 13 cards (including the consultant card) you put them aside and take the discarded cards and any leftover from the pile, shuffle them and ask the consultant to draw randomly enough cards to make up 13 cards. Shuffle the 13 cards and lay them as follows:

Then you need to read the cards horizontally and vertically. So first read the first row, second row, third row and the fourth row. Then read card numbers 1, 4, 7, and 10 followed by 2, 5, 8 and 11, followed by 3, 6, 9 and 12. Finally read the last card number 13.

Once you are finished reading the cards, except the consultant card, remove all other cards two by two, following the same rules outlined on page 8/9. The leftover cards are the final conclusion of this spread. You take the leftover cards, shuffle them and lay them down in rows of 5. If you have 5 cards or less you will only have one row, otherwise you may end up with 2 rows. Read these cards.

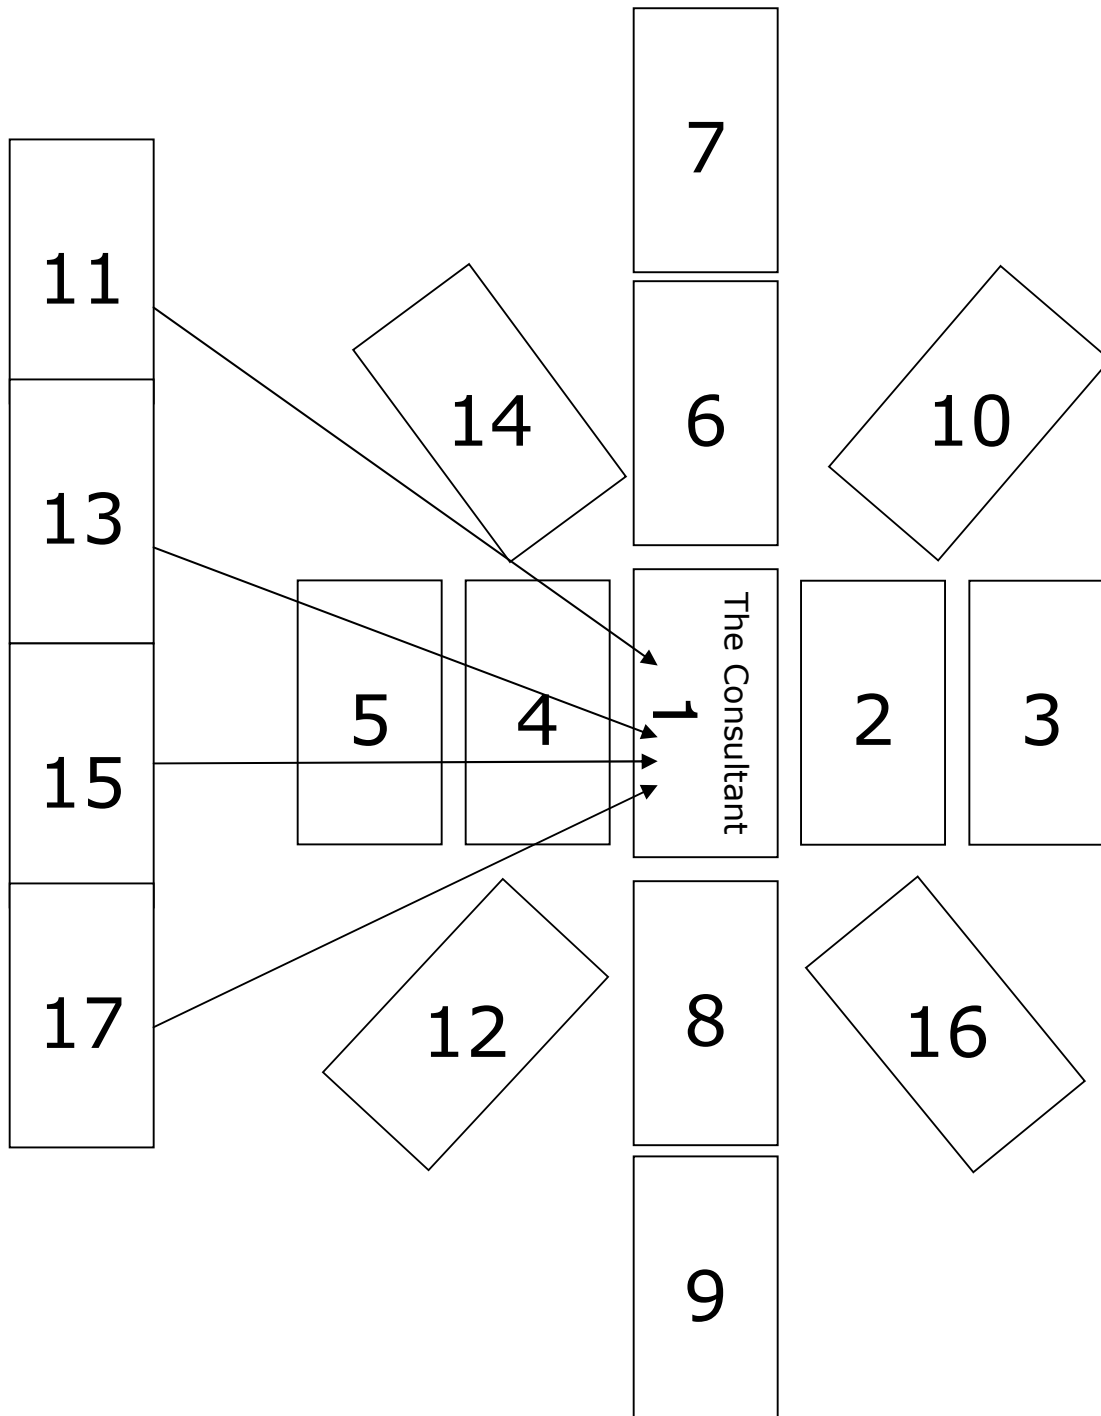

Step 3

If the consultant has other questions that he or she would like an answer to, then shuffle all the cards and give them to the consultant. Ask the consultant to draw 2 cards from anywhere from the deck. Put these 2 cards next to each other. Read the cards. If the meaning of them is vague, you can draw one more card to get clarity.

If you get 2 Spades it means that the consultant will not get that wish. If the consultant has more than one wish or question, you can keep shuffling and repeating this process. Most readers answer 3 wishes or questions for the consultant.

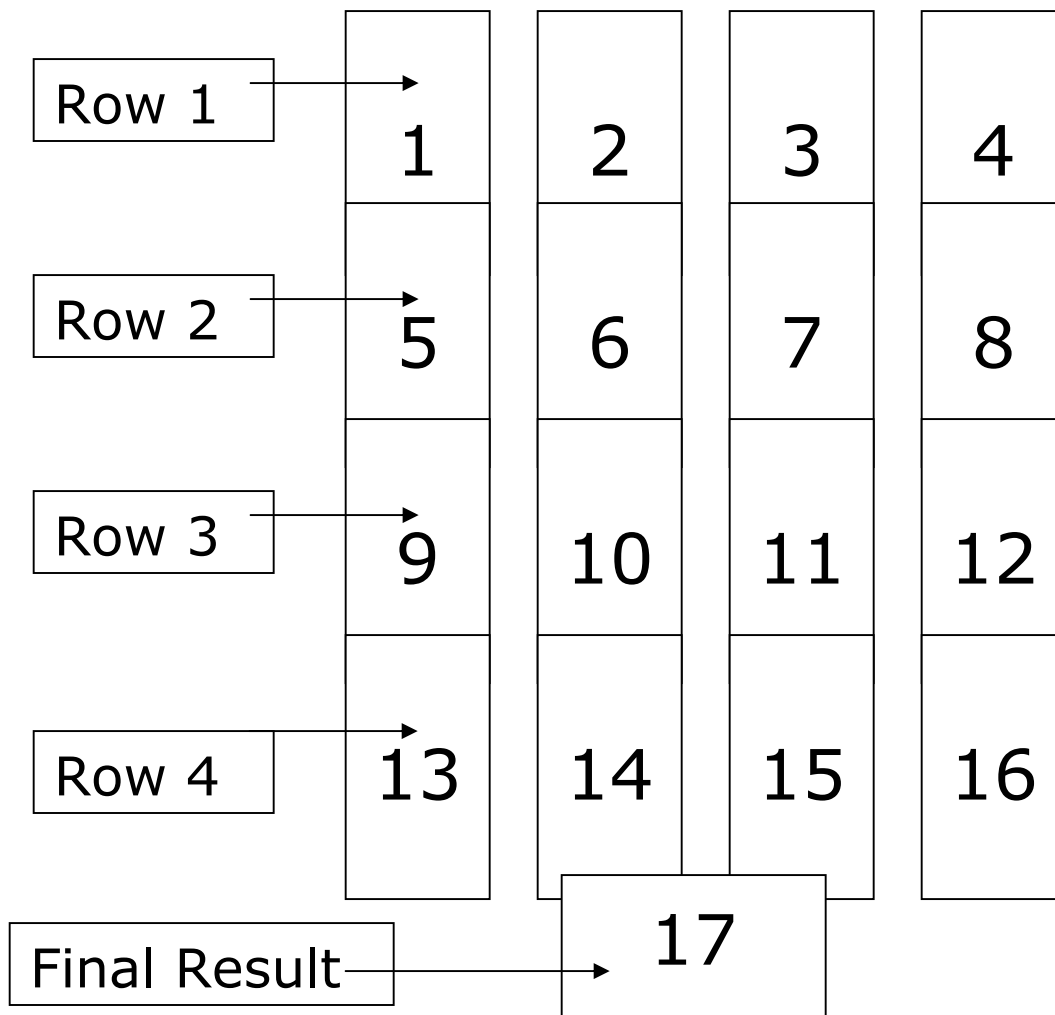

Main Spread Variation

This spread is basically the smaller version of the main reading, choosing only 17 cards. You do not need to remove any cards. However, you can offer to answer the consultant's question at the end.

Four by four Spread

Take out the consultant card. Shuffle the cards well and ask the consultant to draw 16 cards. Shuffle these 17 cards (16 plus the consultant card) and spread them four rows by four columns, as shown below.

First read row 1 to 4, then read each column (1, 5, 9, 13 as one).
After reading card number 17 as indicated in the major spread remove two cards at a time as explained previously. The leftover cards are the conclusion of the reading.

You can still offer to answer the questions as a bonus for the consultant.

The Meaning of the cards

In this section you will find the meaning of the cards used in this fortune telling technique. Some cards have more than one meaning and you need to tap into your intuition and surrounding cards to match the best meaning for your consultant.

A sample spread

This sample reading is for a single young woman.

- 1- Take out the Queen of Hearts and place it on the consultant spot.
- 2- Hand the deck to the consultant and ask her to shuffle and cut the deck in to two piles.
- 3- Start spreading face up as explained previously on page 5.

If you know the consultant, then reading the spreads would be easier. For example, if the consultant is a friend and a student then you can use the relevant meanings. If she is looking for love, you can use the relevant meanings of each card. However, if you read for strangers then you need to incorporate different meaning of each card into play. You need to look at the whole reading first and see what cards are predominant. If there are lots of diamonds, then money is an issue, if you see lots of hearts, then we are mainly dealing with emotional issues. You will also learn to get a feeling of the whole reading the more you practice.

These faced down cards should be placed on top of the consultant card.

Eight of Diamonds with Eight of Spades: If you have not already, you will very soon receive good news regarding employment (or if she is student about education). This news will have some financial significance for you.

Seven of Hearts and Queen of Clubs: A married woman will either be of great help to you or a woman will help you in legalizing a matter you have been waiting for.

Six of Clubs with Queen of Spades: You may be going on a trip with a widowed or divorced woman. Alternatively you will reach an important and satisfactory decision with this woman.

Jack and King of Diamonds: It also shows that you are putting behind an important relationship you have had with a professional man or alternatively if the consultant is very career oriented can be that professionally she had been promoted to a better position.

Jack of Hearts with Queen of Diamonds: There may be an opportunity for a nice young man who is related to the consultant (both hearts) to become financially stable.

Eight of Clubs and Jack of Spades: This opportunity has been provided by a widowed or a divorced man which may also be beneficial to the consultant.

(Remember you should connect the meaning of cards 10, 14, 11, and 16)

8 of Hearts and 10 of Clubs: The consultant will soon be involved in a very successful and meaningful relationship which can lead to marriage.

Ace of Diamonds and 9 of Hearts: You will also have some money luck and a happy home environment.

Now pick up and open the four cards on top of the consultant:

Ace of Hearts, King of Hearts, 9 of Clubs, and Jack of Clubs

Again we are getting confirmation about the beginning of great love and romance, which will lead to happiness at home. You will move in together and build your life happily. There is also a possibility of pregnancy if not careful. This person is very caring and will make a great husband.

Now remove cards 2 by 2 as explained earlier.

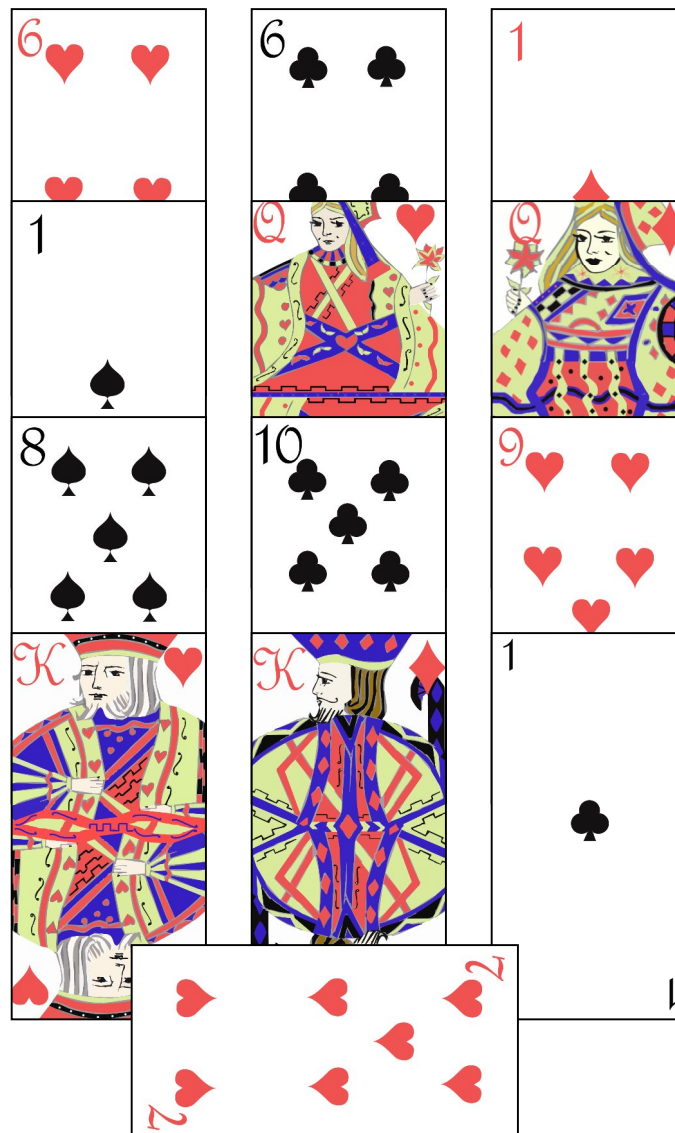

So the following cards were removed:

Jack of Spades with Jack of Clubs
Eight of Spades with Eight of Clubs
Queen of Spades with Queen of Clubs
Eight of Hearts with Eight of Diamonds
Ace of Hearts with Ace of Diamonds
King of Hearts with King of Diamonds
Jack of Hearts with Jack of Diamonds

We cannot find any more perfect match so we remove:
Nine of Hearts with Nine of Clubs

At this time we have 5 cards left. The consultant needs to shuffle all the leftover cards and draw 8 more cards so we have 13 cards all together.

After laying down the cards face up we have the following:

First we read each row as follows:

Six of Hearts, Six of Clubs and Ace of Diamonds: You will be going on a romantic vacation with your partner which will be very enjoyable.

Ace of Spades, Queen of Hearts (the consultant) and Queen of Diamonds: There may be a few road blocks at reaching your financial goals. Also read the fine lines before signing any major document.

Eight of Spades, 10 of Club and 9 of Hearts: There will be an unexpected opportunity for you and someone else for a very profitable joint venture or partnership which will make you very happy as well.

King of Hearts, King of Diamonds, Ace of Clubs: There is also a possibility of your partner and your father or a father figure to do some business with each other that will be very lucky and prosperous.

Now we read each column:

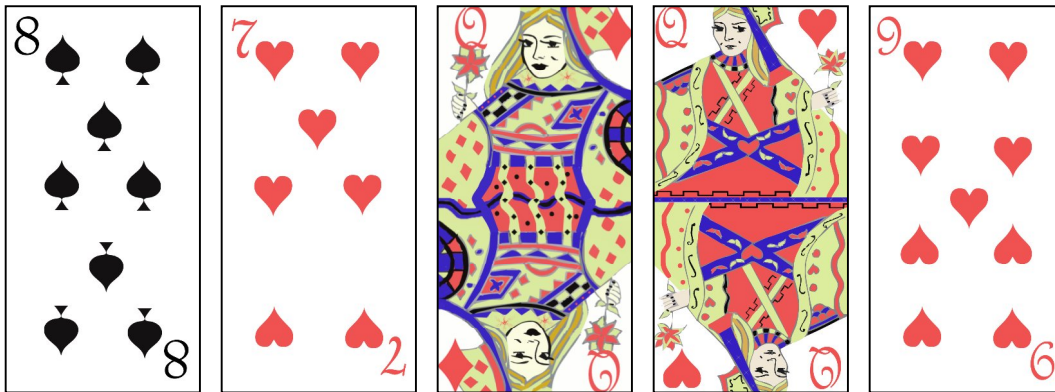

6 of Hearts, Ace of Spades, 8 of Spades, and King of Hearts: For someone who is related to you, maybe your father or a father figure, all of a sudden there will be a long distance opportunity which will not be of any benefit to him. It would be wiser to stay away from it.

6 of Clubs, Queen of Hearts, 10 of Clubs and King of Diamonds: You will reach a very satisfactory decision with another person which may result in a promotion for you. You may end up in a managerial position.

Ace of Diamonds, Queen of Diamonds, 9 of Hearts and Ace of Clubs:
There is again good financial news, and an engagement which will lead to great happiness. All and all, you will be very happy with upcoming events.

7 of Hearts: Again marriage card is closing your fortune.

Once again we have to remove the cards 2 by 2, after shuffling, we lay the cards down in rows of 5 (in this case only one row):

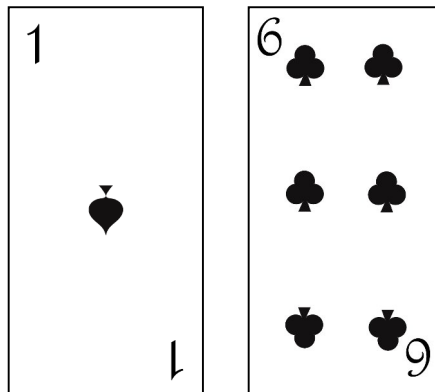

This engagement is totally unexpected and you will be happily surprised. There is also success in what you plan to do. This was a great reading.

If you notice this consultant did not have many Spades in her reading. If you look generally, you will notice lots of red cards. Her concentration was mostly on her career and love life.

Now we can ask her to make a wish and see if it comes through or ask a specific question. It is better for the consultant not to repeat what the fortune has already confirmed i.e. her love life and promotion.

The consultant was planning to take a short trip in December and was wondering if the timing was ok or should it be postponed? She drew the following cards:

The 6 of Clubs shows the trip she has been planning. The Ace of Spades shows that the timing may have been off. But because 6 of Spades comes AFTER the Ace of Spades then the answer would be YES, it is fine to take the trip according to this reading. However, if 6 of Clubs came first and Ace of Spades came after, then the answer would have been No. It is better to postpone the trip.
