The Secret of the Wicca Jar

The Secret of the Wicca Jar

by Aurora

Life teaches us that money doesn't come out of thin air.
You must exert energy, time, and physical labor to get a salary.
It's the way the world works.
There is no such thing as a free lunch.

However, that's not exactly true...

Money doesn't have to be earned physically.

What if it came naturally to you – even by you just willing it?
Not only is it possible...it works.

The Law of Attraction is the power that is at work here. Like attracts like. Money attracts more money. The rich get richer. Surrounding yourself with money, handling money, even having a job where money flows around you will increase the effectiveness of this spell.

I want to tell you about the concept of a Wicca Jar.

People have used Wicca Jars to attract money almost effortlessly. People have had loans repaid that they were never expecting to get back, received larger bonuses than they were expecting, and attracted a job they were waiting for that they thought was a long shot.

To create the Wicca Jar, begin with a clean glass jar. It can be a bowl as well. The point is to be able to see into it. Fill the jar three quarters of the way up with coins – quarters, dimes, etc. Pennies will work, but quarters are better. Fill it with the highest value of coins you can.

Next, fill the jar with water. Choose to get your water from pure, natural sources, like rainwater or ocean water. If the lake, pond, ocean or other body of water near you is polluted, obtain pure spring water by collecting rainwater. Dirty water will not attract in the same way that pure, natural water will.

There is something about water that is universal. It calms. It heals. It restores. People have positive associations with it and feel the need to reciprocate. The money and water combine to be effective in attracting money to you.

Have you noticed that fountains in malls and parks are littered with coins? They are. Money congregates at malls which seems to be part of a great cycle. Water and water flowing increase the effectiveness of the money cycle.

Have you noticed some people have fountains in front of their homes? That is not only a powerful reminder to themselves that money will be coming to them, but business colleagues realize money will be coming there as well. A fountain in your home can mimic this effect. Whatever you do, you want it to be prominent – whatever you can think of to add to effectiveness will work.

Once you've gotten your jar prepared, display it in a prominent area in your home – upon your dining table, on the most prominent part of your kitchen counter – wherever you will pass by it the most. You may even find it beneficial to put another Wicca Jar right next to your bed. And always keep one in the far left rear of your home, for that is the area where your wealth energy abides.

There was a man in Indiana who noticed that if he hosted a party, his prominently displayed jar would fill up mighty quickly!

The purpose of putting the jar in a prominent place is three-fold.

First, it will make you always aware of money. You'll be thinking about it, forming an attraction to it. You'll be attracting money to money and making the idea of money seep into your subconscious.

This is why you'll want to use your Wicca Power Spell. It can greatly strengthen the effect of the Wicca Jar, along with other things I'm about to tell you.

The second purpose is to allow people to fill the jar to the top. People have a need to see things complete, and again money is attracted to money.

A third goal of the Wicca Jar is to obtain a love for money. If you have any qualms about money, begin to realize that your negative associations with money are not for the money itself, but for the negative things that some have done with it. Realize that you can use your Wicca powers for good. Just as people gravitate towards people who love them, money does as well.

Become more informed about money.

To help increase the power of the money-attracting spell you're about to learn, you should also become more informed about money investing. There are several ways to do this.

Talk to a stockbroker. Talk to a banker. Read financial papers. You will learn quickly. Once your knowledge of stocks increases, you can use spells to pick the proper ones. I'm not saying that it will tell you which one of the thousands of stocks to pick, but when you find ten suitable stocks, it may tell you – through clues or intuition – the three best choices.

Just as a proper broker asks his clients if they're looking for safety and little return or riskier stocks with higher return, you need to ask yourself the same question.

The spells for stocks can be your own creation, revised from the money-attracting spell you will soon learn. When writing a personal spell, I recommend always being very specific with your requests. Know what you want. Be passionate about it. Know that the Universe has already set it aside for you and you have only to attract it to you.

Besides stocks, the basic idea is that money attracts money almost like a magnet. Your Wicca Jar will enable you to start your journey of abundance. Others will respond – by either contributing with some coins – or leading you to opportunities you never knew existed.

Note: spells using different colors will perform differently. Which colors do you think will attract money? While green and even silver are good colors to use because they are representative of money, gold is the most powerful. I suggest you use it. Purple is the color of royalty and is also a very strong attraction of wealth.

For your Spell, gather these ingredients:

- Gold candle. The larger the better. The more, the better, although one will do.
- A piece of natural gold, jade, yellow sapphire, or emerald if you have it. (Natural gems can be found online or at a spiritual bookstore.)
- Gold coin(s)
- Patchouli incense
- Gold flowers – gold color, not metal. Gold speckled or gold painted flowers will do.
- Picture of a lion, eagle, bull, or man representing one of the four zodiac signs – Leo, Scorpio, Taurus, and Aquarius. These all represent success. If you know of a particularly successful and wealthy friend or inspirational figure, this will drive the point home for you. The picture should be a powerful image – one in which the object is dominating a challenge or standing triumphantly. Donald Trump is an icon!
- A blood-red cloth – a flat sheet or cloth poster
- Optional: Your Wicca Jar(s)

Look ahead to determine when a full moon will occur. I suggest you set up that day if it's not raining. (The rain during the ceremony may actually increase the spell's resonance with you.)

Set up outside, preferably in your backyard. If that were not an option, then a space in a park would be appropriate as well. You'll want to be in a private place though.

Lay out the cloth, using weights of some kind. Spread the candles around you or if you have only one, place it front and center. Place the flowers around as well. Putting them in vases with water is even better. Save the stones and coins for the night. Also place the picture front and center.

When complete darkness sets in, you may begin. Wear what you feel most natural in. Take your precious stones and gold pieces. Light the candles and hold your stone in one hand and the gold in the other.

Look at the picture(s) and concentrate on attracting money and success from the money and success you already have.

Start with saying "Ohm" quietly and elongating the letter "m." Then begin the chant:

Part I

YOU ARE MINE
JOY IN THE GOLD BUDS
PASSION IN THE GREEN LEAVES
DO NOT DELAY
YOU ARE LATE

Part II

ABUNDANCE BE MINE
WHAT I ASK IS MY CHOICE
HEAR MY CALL AND OBEY
THUS IT SHALL BE BE ONE WITH ME

As with all prayers, the more fervent you are, the more effective it will be and the more it will seep into your entire being.

Once you have cast the spell, you may meditate for a few minutes. Then collect your items and go inside. The chant will last for months and this part of your work is done. The universe will take over at this point.

The importance of the Wicca Jar now begins. It will make you constantly aware of the money the Universe has set aside for you and now you are attracting.

Remember, the power to attract money is inside you.

Let your power show for all to see!

Allow it to enable you to enjoy the pleasure and the beauty the world has awaiting.

Blessed Be,

Aurora
